Mandrake CEO to run 250km in the desert for NABS

Stefan Danis, CEO of Mandrake and NEXCareer, has committed to running the 250K across-the-Gobi Desert race in June 2009. Stefan is using this personal challenge as a means to raise $25,000 for the unemployed, namely through NABS Canada.

Besides helping people in transition by raising funds for NABS, Stefan is also partnering with NEXCareer and providing vouchers for career transition services to everyone who pledges him $100 or more. Voucher can be used by the payee or it can be gifted to a friend or family member affected by recent downturn.

Those looking for a job can gain from this challenge as Stefan is creating weekly career advice videos that are available both on You Tube and his race website. Videos range in topic from How to Build a Perfect Resume to how to take this inopportune time to improve your health and fitness. Visit www.gobi4nabs.com and check out the Looking for a job? section.

A tax receipt is issued by NABS to all pledging $50 or more.

Every little bit matters, so please help by making a pledge at www.gobi4nabs.com.

ARE YOU TRAPPED IN A FIXED MINDSET? FIX IT!

by Terry Waghorn for Forbes.com

In a rut in your life, or in your career? There's just one big simple thing you have to do to get out of it, says Carol Dweck, Stanford University psychologist: Switch from a fixed mindset to a growth one. In her book Mindset: The New Psychology of Success, Dweck writes "For 20 years, my research has shown that the view you adopt for yourself profoundly affects the way you lead your life. It can determine whether you become the person you want to be and whether you accomplish the things you value. How does this happen? How can a simple belief have the power to transform your psychology and, as a result, your life?"

The psychologist Carol Dweck tells you how, in five simple steps.
